Lorraine Rossiter Pro Se
VS

Betty Simon, Trustee LLC

Motion

UNITED STATES
DISTRICT COURT

To expedite the appeal originally scheduled for May 5, 2008
Docket # 1:08cv1192 JBS

I Lorraine Rossiter the Debtor of 74 Girard Ave.
Princeton, NJ.

Keith Bonchi atty for Betty Simon Trustee
Goldberg, Mackler, Hughes & Minty, Pfeffer, Bonchi
and Gil, PC
660 New Road, Suite 1-7
Northfield, NJ 08225

I am asking the Court to rule on my appeal originally scheduled for May 5, 2008.

It is imperative that a decision is made regarding the appeal Mr. Charles Ingo, made on my behalf.
Mr. Ingo and I parted ways on May 2nd, 2008. Without a decision I am unable to move forward and reclaiming my home my only residence.

On June 20th I appeared Pro Se with only my service
dog before Your Honor Judge Mary Ora Colabelli

I was there in Superior Court Docket #713889-06
 a motion to Vacate the final foreclosure of my property. In April my family and I were in her court and she told Mr. Dwyer my attorney ^{at the time} and us, she could not make a ruling as we had an appeal in Bankruptcy District. ^{Court} a May 9th hearing was cancelled still nothing on appeal.

On June 20th I went to court alone as there was still no decision on District Bankruptcy Appeal.

The next thing I knew she denied the appeal and allowed the final judgement of foreclosure. Judge Cobble. I felt disrespected and was not respectful of my fragile condition. When I ask her to repeat some thing she made some sort of statement, but did not answer my question. (Outside in the hall as I sobbed her Court Attendant came out and told me what to do.

As I left the building with Maggie somehow I landed on the ground. I was quickly put on a bench and attended to by Strangers and Sheriff's Office.
 When I got stable a Sheriff's officer escorted ^{me} to the Bankruptcy court Hdg.

I filed an emergency stay of Execution and after waiting 3 hrs or more it was denied. In the record
 I would have expected 7 days to get an attorney and I was Pro Se and obviously fragile.

On Monday June 23, 2008 I was removed from my only residence by the Camden County Sheriff's Dept and the property managed for Betty Simon.

This action has left me homeless and devastated. I am 64 years of age on Social Security Disability and emotional unstable due to depression and an anxiety disorder. The decision to remove me from my home in 48 hours has been devastating.

I'm asking the court to rule ^{on} the appeal as soon as possible so that I can take action to return to my home, sooner rather than later. At this time no further action on my behalf can be done until a ruling on the appeal is decided.

Respectfully

Lorraine Rossiter, Esq.
